caury Farms

Coconut and Dairy Farm

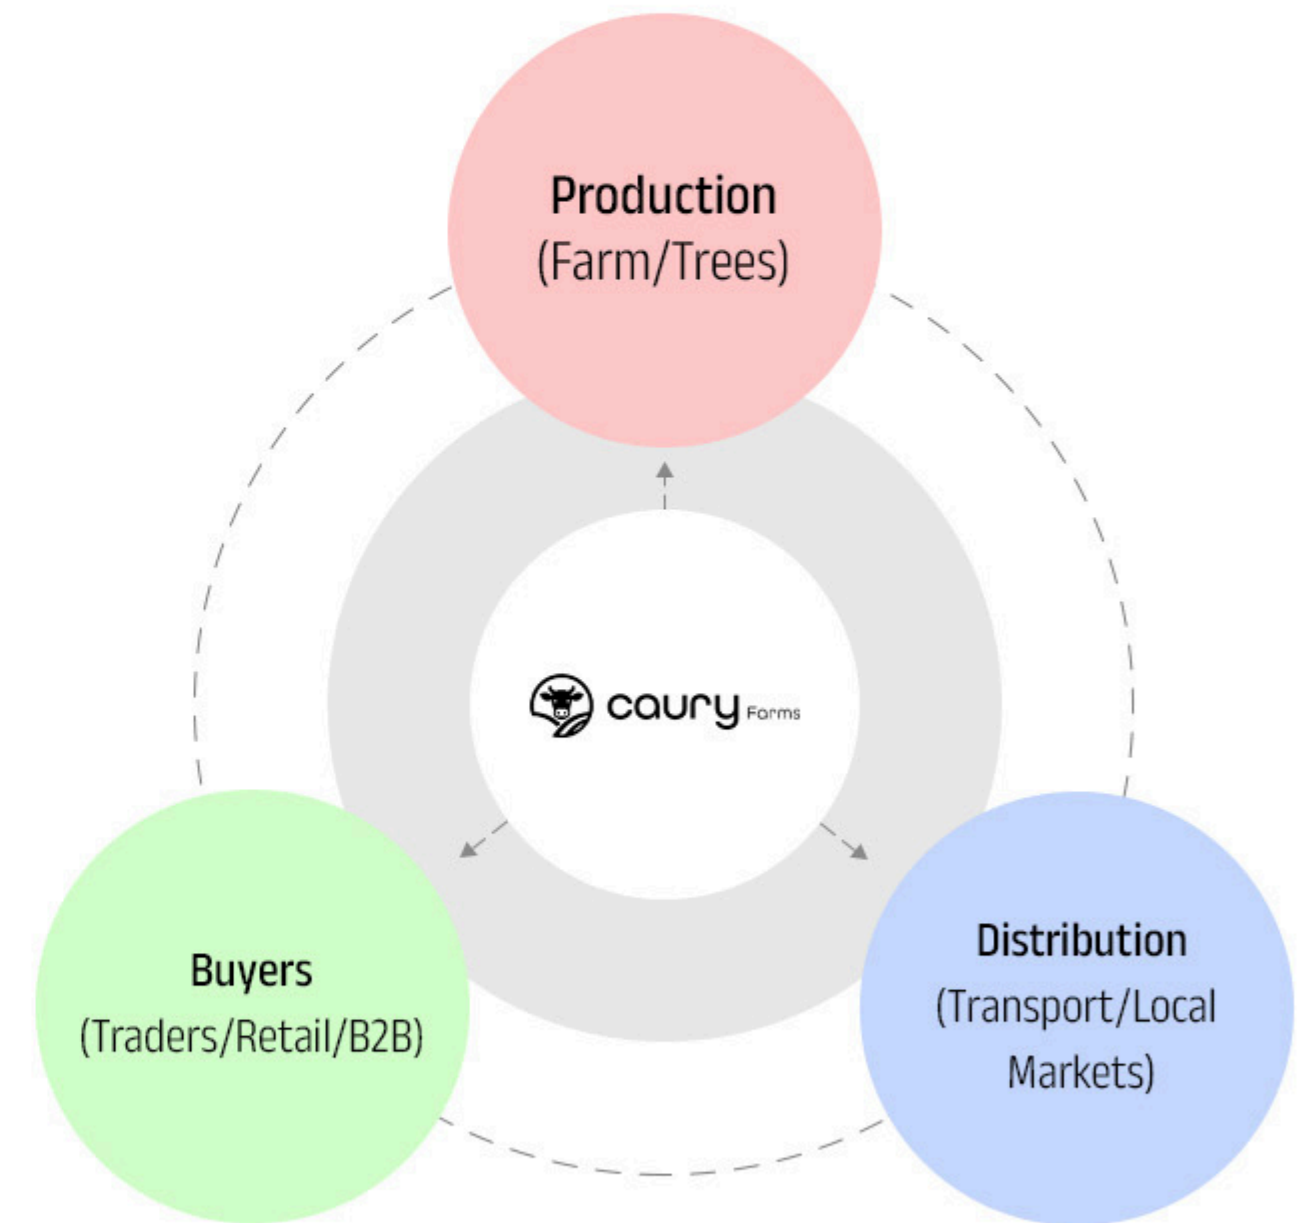

Caury Farms is a coconut farm focused on consistent, high-quality production.

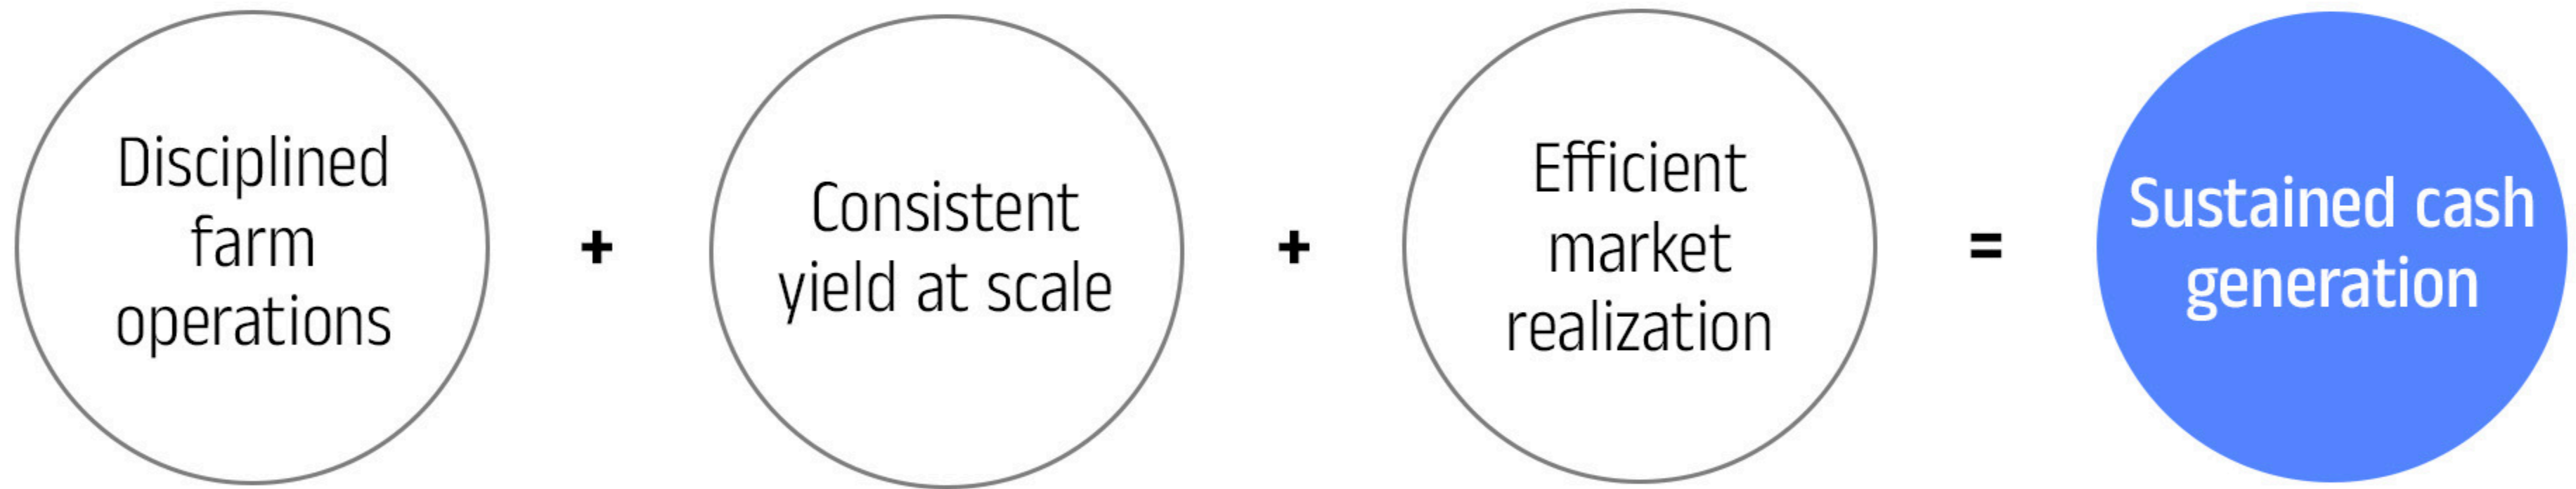

Why is coconut farming complex?

1. Climate-dependent production – Output is influenced by rainfall, irrigation, and tree health, requiring careful, continuous management to maintain consistency.
2. Long-cycle crop system – Coconut trees operate on long yield cycles, making production planning and output stability more challenging.
3. Operations-heavy business – Maintaining quality at scale requires disciplined execution across irrigation, fertilization, harvesting, and labor management.
4. Fragmented market structure – Coconut markets are largely unorganized, with price volatility and multiple intermediaries affecting realization.

The outcome – a stable and scalable farming business with consistent cash flow

Caury Farms currently produces ~200–240 tons annually, generating consistent monthly revenue of ~₹4.6L with strong operating margins

 Q1FY26 annualized
